ALFORD-ATKINSON

Marriage of Popular Young People Thursday Evening

A courtship begun during their college days at Swarthmore culminated Thursday evening in the marriage of Mr. Newell Gilder Alford and Miss Caroline Farren Atkinson at the home of the bride's parents on Main Street.

Promptly at six o'clock Miss Mary Ruby Morton, of Madisonville, seated at the piano, began the wedding march and the bridal party entered the parlor from the rear hall, the bride on the arm of her father, who gave her away, and the groom accompanied by the officiating minister Howard J. Brazelton, of the Christian Church, entering from an adjoining room met her in the alcove beneath an immense pending floral horseshoe where the ceremony was said in an impressive manner.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Atkinson and has many friends in Earlington, Madisonville and elsewhere. The groom has been a resident of Earlington for several years, holding a responsible position in the engineering department of the St. Bernard Mining Co. and is deservedly popular with his company and fellow employees.

The ceremony was witnessed by only the immediate family and a limited number of friends. A delightful buffet luncheon was served the guests in the dining room after which the happy couple left on the Dixie Flyer for Chicago returning via Richmond, Indiana, to visit friends of the groom. On their return to Earlington they will occupy the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Rash which they have already furnished.

The presents which were handsome and useful came from many friends of the contracting parties. They have the congratulations of a wide circle of friends.

Miss Nell Robinson of St. Charles

Again in the Lead in Mammoth Cave Contest--All Contestants Working Like Beavers

INTEREST INTENSE AND GROWING

The race for the $40.00 gold watch and the river trip to the Mammoth Cave is getting exciting. Miss Nell Robinson, of St. Charles, is again in the lead and says she is going to stay there if she can. Miss Edna Peyton, of Mortons Gap, is a close second and will try to be at the head of the column next Friday. Miss Golda Salmon, of Earlington, jumps from fourth place to third and is likely to be heard from at the finish. Miss Mabel Browning, of Earlington, holds fourth place and has announced her determined to win the trip to the cave and the watch if she can. Miss Alberta Barnett, of Mortons Gap, holds fifth place and expects to move up considerably by next Friday. Miss Hazel Griffin, of Earlington is sixth and is doing some good work. Miss Fannie Trathen, of Nortonville, is seventh but does not intend to hold this place longer than next Friday.

Miss Nina Williams, of Islesley made a big gain this week and will be a factor in this race. Miss Mary Parker, of Earlington, does not show with the winners this week, but she could have if she would. Miss Josie Payne, of Nebo, is doing some fine work and made a considerable gain. Miss Dixie Woodruff, of St. Charles, jumped from 16,950 to 23,950 and is doing some good work, she will likely be heard from later on. The Madisonville and Dawson girls are just beginning to wake up and get busy and the probability is things will be lively from now until the end of the contest.
